CACDA Presents the Second in a Series of Community Dialogues

Cazenovia, NY – On Tuesday, 24 February 2009, at 7:00 pm in the Cazenovia College McDonald Lecture Hall, Cazenovia Area Community Development Association (CACDA) will host the second in a series of Community Dialogues.

Community Dialogues provide an opportunity for communication among the many diverse constituencies that comprise our community. This event will focus on how local organizations can work together more cooperatively and effectively. It will begin with brief presentations from several groups and encourage open discussion among attendees.

This program is free and open to the public. Representatives from area organizations are encouraged to attend and participate. Learn more about your community and how you can help make it an even better place for everyone.

CACDA enhances economic vitality and preserves the rural, historic character of our region through education, consensus-building and project implementation.

Since inception, for each $1 of individual investment, CACDA has facilitated $26.28 in community projects – a 2628% return on investment!

You can support CACDA's programs through contributions and volunteer efforts. For more information, please call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
