CACDA Elects Officers

Officers remain for another term

Cazenovia, NY – The Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. (CACDA) board of directors has elected the following officers to serve another term: Thomas Clarke, President; David Lucas, Vice President; Larry Wetzel, Treasurer; and Juanita Critz, Secretary.

Mr. Clarke, a former Cazenovia village mayor and currently with the Madison County Sewer District, said "I am pleased that the current officers have agreed to serve another term. Their commitment to CACDA and our community is gratifying. CACDA will continue to work with other organizations and municipalities to pursue exciting new projects which will enhance the community we all cherish."

Mr. Lucas, a long-time resident and businessman, stated, "I am excited to be part of an organization that has the list of accomplishments CACDA has."

Over the past several years, CACDA has completed projects in priority areas that include economic development, environment and infrastructure. Current projects include preservation of the CAVAC building and wall, infrastructure upgrades, conserving agricultural land, and protection of the Cazenovia Lake watershed, among many others.

Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) for-impact community-based organization representing a broad cross-section of stakeholders. CACDA enhances economic vitality and preserves the rural, historic character of our region through education, consensus-building and project implementation.

Individuals and corporations can invest in CACDA's programs through contributions and volunteer efforts. For more information, please visit www.cacda.net or call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
