New Members Join CACDA Board

Cazenovia, NY – Bridget A. Cunningham, Thomas Clarke and Peter Kip, Jr. have been selected as the newest members of the Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. (CACDA) board of directors.

Ms. Cunningham, a portfolio manager for Key Bank in Syracuse, was elected to an initial three-year term on the board as the first Town of Nelson representative. Mr. Clarke is a former Cazenovia village mayor and currently with the Cazenovia Sewer District. His three year term will be served as an at-large community representative. Mr. Kip was also elected to a three year term representing the Trush Park Association. He is the Director of Sales & Marketing at Pelco Component Technologies.

Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit community based organization representing a broad cross-section of stakeholders. CACDA seeks to facilitate the planning and implementation of various projects and programs that will enhance the quality of life, for all residents in the greater Cazenovia region, through education and consensus-building activities.

CACDA offers assistance in accomplishing community goals and objectives. It provides a non-political clearinghouse for discussion and a resource for fact finding as well as dissemination of information.

Individuals and corporations can support CACDA's programs through donations and volunteer efforts. For more information, please call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
