CACDA Presents:
"Impacts of Watershed and Riparian Health on Cazenovia Lake"

Cazenovia, NY - On Wednesday, 22 March 2006 at 7:00 pm in the Cazenovia Public Library Community Room, Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. (CACDA) will sponsor a presentation on the significance of preserving the health of Cazenovia Lake watershed.

Scott Ingmire from Madison County Planning Department will be the featured speaker. Mr. Ingmire received an undergraduate degree in Environmental Science from Allegheny College in 1998 and a Master of Science degree in Water and Wetland Resource Management from the SUNY College of Environmental Science & Forestry in 2001. He has worked on various projects within the county that include environmental planning and water resource management.

A 3-D model that demonstrates visual depictions of cumulative pollution effects throughout a watershed will also be available for viewing. Julia Shotzberger will describe point and non-point pollution sources, and offer practical suggestions for controlling both.

This program is free and open to the public. Please join us for this important informational program.

Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit community based organization representing a broad cross-section of stakeholders. CACDA seeks to facilitate the planning and implementation of various projects and programs that will enhance the quality of life, for all residents in the greater Cazenovia region, through education and consensus-building activities.

CACDA offers assistance in accomplishing community goals and objectives. It provides a non-political clearinghouse for discussion and a resource for fact finding as well as dissemination of information.

Individuals and corporations can support CACDA's programs through donations and volunteer efforts. For more information, please call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
