CACDA Directors Re-enlist
New Member Joins Board

Cazenovia, NY – Three directors of the Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. (CACDA) have agreed to serve a second term.

At the regular monthly Board of Director's meeting held at The Brewster Inn on 16 November 2005, Edward Green, Robert Dubik and Jim Walter each stated their intention to remain with the organization for another three years. Mr. Green is an at-large director, Mr. Dubik represents the Cazenovia School District and Mr. Walter represents Madison County Tourism.

David Lucas of Cazenovia has been elected to an initial three-year term on the Board. Mr. Lucas will serve as an at-large director for the greater Cazenovia area.

Cazenovia Area Community Development Association, Inc. is an independent 501(c)(3) not-for-profit community based organization representing a broad cross-section of stakeholders. CACDA seeks to facilitate the planning and implementation of various projects and programs that will enhance the quality of life, for all residents in the greater Cazenovia region, through education and consensus-building activities.

CACDA offers assistance in accomplishing community goals and objectives. It provides a non-political clearinghouse for discussion and a resource for fact finding as well as dissemination of information.

Individuals and corporations can support CACDA's programs through donations and volunteer efforts. For more information, please call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
