Grant Information Available on CACDA Website

Cazenovia, NY – Local organizations and individuals can access information regarding grants and other sources of funding by visiting the Cazenovia Area Community Development Association (CACDA) website at www.cacda.net.

“The current economic situation is challenging, but there are still grant monies available,” said Executive Director Barbara Henderson.

CACDA's website is a good starting point for organizations to research grants for implementing projects.

A volunteer page was also recently added to the CACDA website. If an organization needs help, they can log onto www.cacda.net, select “Volunteers” and follow the instructions to post opportunities. Individuals who want to contribute time or expertise can go to the site and browse the opportunities, or click on the "Volunteer Now" button to post their availability.

Have questions? Please contact assistant@cacda.net or call 655-7532.

CACDA enhances economic vitality and preserves the rural, historic character of our region through education, consensus-building and project implementation. Since inception, for each $1 of individual investment, CACDA has facilitated $26.28 in community projects – a 2628% return on investment.

You can support CACDA's programs through contributions and volunteer efforts. For more information, please call Barbara Henderson, Executive Director, at 655-7651 or e-mail director@cacda.net.
