CACDA Website Expanded to Include Volunteer Page

Cazenovia, NY – Cazenovia Area Community Development Association's (CACDA) website has recently been expanded to include a new and improved Volunteer page.

"We wanted to make it easier for community groups to connect with people willing to share their time and talents," said Executive Director Barbara Henderson.

If an organization needs help, they can log onto www.cacda.net, select "Volunteers" and follow the instructions to post opportunities. Individuals who want to contribute time or expertise can go to the site and browse the opportunities, or click on the "Volunteer Now" button to post their availability.

Have questions? Please contact assistant@cacda.net or call 655-7532.

CACDA enhances economic vitality and preserves the rural, historic character of our region through education, consensus-building and project implementation. Since inception, for each $1 of individual investment, CACDA has facilitated $26.28 in community projects – a 2628% return on investment.
